Disc Solar Power Generation Scam

Overview

They involve scammers making false promises or tricking you into paying for services you'll never receive. Recently, the FTC also issued an alert to warn consumers about solar power scams, such as free solar panels or exaggerated savings. While reputable companies can help you save money with clean or solar energy improvements, scammers offer more than they can deliver. The scams vary, but here's the gist: someone claiming to be with the government or your utility company promises big savings on your utility bills from solar energy. In recent days, a video has gained viral traction across social media platforms, captivating viewers with an innovative idea: transforming discarded CDs into functional solar panels. This engaging tutorial appears to offer an enticing solution for repurposing old CDs and harnessing solar energy. Repeated harassment calls about installing solar panels, over 300 calls in the last year, I get about 4 a day as I try to run a business I have to distinguish between these nonstop calls and my clients/customers. I've asked to be removed from the call list 28 times already as they even call about. Want Help From The Law Firm Solely Focused on Solar Panel Lawsuits?
